Councillor joins call for action on A1307

CAMPAIGNERS are repeating calls for speed limit reductions on the A1307 after the road claimed its sixth life in two years.

The latest fatal accident happened close to Horseheath Green – just 300 metres east of the spot where schoolgirl Imogen Barker, 15, died in February.

Father-of-two Peter Rogers, 34, of Chedburgh Place, Haverhill, died after his Ford Transit overturned and left the road at 4.45pm on Saturday.

Imogen was killed as she tried crossing the road on her way home to Shady Camps.

The latest accident occurred east of the junction.

Cambridgeshire County Council is already proposing three sections of the accident-blighted road should have reduced speed limits. It has put the A1307 at the top of its list after a countywide review.

But Coun Vicky Ford, district councillor for Balsham ward, which covers Horseheath, is concerned the section of road near the village itself will not see a reduction.

She has contacted the county council to call for two issues to be addressed by them.

She said: "I asked them to firstly look again at the speed limit to be reduced in Horseheath and beyond the hill at Cardinal's Green. Secondly, I am calling for improvements to safety at Horseheath to be given urgent priority.

BY Ben Lee

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"The number of truly tragic crashes on this road is completely unacceptable and we must have some safety improvements."

The county council says the speed limit on the single carriageway section from Linton to the dual carriageway towards Horseheath could be reduced from 60mph to 50mph without any engineering work.

The single carriageway section from Little Abington to the dual carriageway south of Hildersham could also get a 50mph limit, but the council says engineering works would be required to enforce the lower speed.

Coun Ford said: "There is a huge amount of frustration about how long this process is taking, which is largely due to the lack of funding given to Cambridgeshire's roads. They just don't have enough funding."

There have now been 27 accidents on the A1307 so far this year.

Esther Cornell, spokeswoman for action group Access 1307, said: "The accident rate on the A1307 has increased substantially in the past couple of years. It has always been high but it is now higher than ever."

"There has been significant growth in Haverhill but this money has not been invested in road infrastructure.

Lovely doubly! Champers toast marks twins' 80th

BY Ben Lee

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

TWINS Mick and Tony Suckling have been given a champagne toast. Their wives, daughters and grandchildren gathered to toast their health on their 80th birthday.

The trouble is, once the champagne starts flowing, some people find it hard to tell them apart.

Mick said: "Some people are better than others, but it can be quite embarrassing when you have to tell people that you are not who they think they are speaking to."

Mick and Tony see each other every day, even if it is just for a quick chat.

The duo, brought up in Steeple Bumpstead, even joined the Army together on the same day.

Tony said: "My number ended in 338 and Mick's was 339."

Until their retirement seven years ago the pair worked together in their own agricultural contracting business.

When the Weekly News met the lively twins they were finishing each other's sentences and answering questions for each other.

Tony said: "People call us both 'Tony 'n Mick'. But some are better than others at telling us apart."

Mick has been married to Rosemary for 55 years and lives in Stambourne. They have two daughters and four grandsons.

But Tony remains in the family home in Chapel Street, in Steeple Bumpstead, with Anne, his wife of 52 years, with whom he has two daughters, one son, and seven grandchildren. Although living apart, the pair are never far from each other's thoughts.

Mick said: "We don't go out socially so much, but we do see each other a lot. Tony's wife says she married us both."

"But it has many more advantages. When we worked together we used to do each other's shifts without anybody knowing."

Tony said: "We have always got on. We have not fallen out in 80 years."

Two stores up for grabs

TWO Haverhill shops will go under the hammer at top auction house Savills on Monday.

New Look's premises in The Chantry, High Street, and the store next door, Bon Marché, are both up for sale.

Located close to HSBC Bank, Dorothy Perkins, Burton Menswear and Clinton Cards, the two properties are described by the auctioneers as occupying "a prominent position on the south side of the pedestrianised section of the High Street in the prime retail area".

Number 4, The Chantry, has a guide price of £500,000-£525,000 and is lot 25 in the auction, which will take place at Claridges Hotel in London.

It is let to New Look until 2011 and has a rental income of £34,500 a year. The property is described as "a modern two-storey terraced retail building arranged as a ground floor shop unit with first floor ancillary and storage accommodation. There is a private shared service yard at the back and the property is available leasehold."

Lot 27 is number 5/6 The Chantry which is also billed as a long leasehold retail investment.

Currently let to Bon

Marché until 2011, it is also two-storey with a double shop unit on the ground floor and storage space on the first floor. It has a guide price of £800,000-£850,000.

Both properties are currently on 25 year leases and the rental income from number 5/6 is £59,000 a year.

The two properties are held on 999 year lease from 2005 from Carolgate Friendly Society at a fixed peppercorn ground rent.

The buildings will be among 43 properties to be sold at Savills' latest commercial auction, which starts at 2.30pm.

Second victim of A505 crash named

THE second of two women who died in a crash on the A505 in Pampisford last week has been named.

She is Barbara Webb, 63, of Medgower in Haverhill Road, Little Wrattling.

Rosamund Irene Patten, 68, a passenger in a green Vauxhall Vectra, also died in the incident last Tuesday night.

The Vectra, driven by Mrs Webb, was in collision with a blue

Ford Transit van and a maroon Vauxhall Vectra.

Mrs Patten, of High Street, Great Abingdon, was a rear seat passenger.

The front seat passenger, a 69-year-old woman from Great Abingdon, was taken to hospital. Her injuries were said not to be life-threatening.

The van driver, a 27-year-old man from Nottingham, suffered minor injuries.

Tributes for father killed in road crash

"The road takes a lot of traffic but is a little road and difficult to access for drivers, pedestrians and cyclists. Accessing the road is a major problem and this is compounded by the speed issue.

"We have just had a speed limit review but the area where the latest accident was has not been recommended to be included in it."

Tributes have been paid to Mr Rogers.

The builder lived in a room in a shared house with several Polish men in Chedburgh Place, Haverhill.

Housemate Jerzy Kuligowski said: "It is so terrible that he died. He was a young man who seemed very kind. It is so awful for his family who have been here to collect his stuff."

"Peter was a nice quiet man who spent a lot of time in his room. He was getting over a divorce and really missed his two children. It is all so very sad."

Last August, 17-year-old Haverhill schoolgirl Stevie-Jay Sims died after an early morning crash on the road.

Haverhill father-of-two Anthony Bacon was the victim of a smash on the A1307 in September. He lost control of his car, hit a sign and spun into a ditch. He died a month later in hospital from his injuries.

Elizabeth Clifton-Brown, 80, died in hospital last December, following a crash near Bartlow crossroads last November.

Safety campaigner Mrs Cornell added: "We send out condolences to the family of the man that was killed on Saturday. We will be pressuring for action to be taken by the council and we ask that drivers take action too."

"We will be reinforcing the view that Horseheath needs to be looked at again in terms of the speed limit review."

A county council spokesman said: "The whole of the A1307 was reviewed as part of our speed assessment and there were sections that could see a reduction in the limit. The Horseheath section was not in it. Our officers are still looking at the results of our speed limit assessment and they will again look at that section once more."

A spokeswoman for road safety campaign group Brake said: "It is positive that the council is listening to the campaign and community's concerns. We hope that there will be a positive outcome for them and that funding will be found to get some measures in place to save lives."

In the crash on Saturday three fire crews from Linton, Haverhill and Cambridge were scrambled and firefighters managed to free Mr Rogers from the car by 6pm.

It is not yet clear whether another vehicle was involved and police are calling for anyone who saw what happened to come forward. Call Cambridgeshire police on 0845 4564564 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Pupils recreate the nativity

LIONS and Tigers acted out the story of the nativity at Kedington Primary School. Pupils in the Reception Years 1 and 2, known as Tigers and Lions, performed the play while pupils in Years

3 and 4, known as the Leopards and Jaguars, narrated the tale of Jesus' birth, including the role of King Herod's soldiers.

Youngsters took to the stage to perform the play this week.

School areas may alter in shake-up

BY John Goode

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

PRIMARY pupils in Wickhambrook may be sent to a Haverhill comprehensive rather than Newmarket's St Felix Middle School if the Suffolk schools shake-up goes through.

The claim was made by Save Suffolk Middle Schools (SSMS), a protest organisation opposing the move to adopt a two-tier education system across Suffolk.

"No mention was made in the original proposals of altering school catchment areas between pyramids," said an SSMS spokesman.

Such a move would be "totally against" the wishes of parents – some of whom had moved to be in a particular school's catchment area and would not be able to move again.

Schools in the Haverhill area are among the first to be affected by Suffolk County Council's decision to scrap middle schools and a first phase consultation period is coming to an end.

SSMS claimed that teachers unsettled by Suffolk's schools shake-up are already seeking jobs in Cambridgeshire, after being told they have no guarantee of keeping a job in Suffolk.

Headteachers have not received promised "recruitment and retention" packages to help them keep good staff through the reorganisation, which is just at the first phase of its consultation.

SSMS said that more than half the teachers in the Haverhill pyramid's schools are actively seeking new jobs – across the boundary in Cambridgeshire.

He said the organisation had kept a "watching brief" on the first consultation stage for the Haverhill area schools.

"However, now that this is drawing to a close, we feel compelled to comment on the farcical nature of what has been happening and the dire consequences that it is already having on the education of the children of Suffolk," he said.

"At the very least, the original decision should be overturned until more detailed plans and accurate costings for changes to all affected schools in Suffolk are submitted for independent scrutiny."

Final meeting on county's education plan

PARENTS have one last chance to hear details of plans to axe middle schools in Suffolk. The last public meeting on the issue to be held around Haverhill as part of consultation will be from 7.30pm at Hartest Primary School, The Row, Bury St Edmunds on December 12. More than 1,000 people have already turned out to meetings in and around Haverhill and a similar number have made their voices heard through questionnaires. Although public meetings finish next week, people can still take part in the public consultation which runs until January 18. Suffolk County Council wants to move from three-tier to two-tier education, abolishing middle schools so youngsters only change school once, aged 11. Haverhill and Lowestoft are in the first phase of the plans. For more information about the proposals, go to www.suffolk.gov.uk/sor

Centre vandals go on window smash spree

A CHARITY has slammed vandals who attacked a community centre, shattering windows and causing hundreds of pounds worth of damage.

Members of Kedington Community Association were shocked to find six large windows had been smashed at the centre. The floor was strewn with broken glass and bricks.

The centre has been attacked more than a dozen times this year and the association said it is "frustrated" by the time and money it is having to spend on repairs and security measures.

The association is now looking at improving CCTV and has already installed posts around bottle banks in a bid to stop them being pushed over. It has also chained down wheelie bins to prevent them being thrown in the river.

The latest attack comes just two months after residents complained that drunken youths were running rampage through the village and had even tried to fire-bomb the library.

Steve Brown, chairman of the association, said the damaged windows would cost around £1,000 to repair.

It is the second time this year windows have been smashed at the centre and Mr Brown is concerned about the effect it could have on the association's insurance premium.

BY Rachel Exance

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

The latest incident happened on Monday, November 26, between 4.30pm and 7.45pm.

He said: "It's been a very bad year for damage and vandalism and general nuisance. It's cost us quite a bit of money.

"We have got some CCTV there and we are looking to upgrade that and hopefully give better protection to the building. With the windows at the back, we are looking at the options to see if we can do anything structurally to reduce the influence of criminal damage.

"We feel quite frustrated. We are doing all this hard work to keep the place going and provide wonderful facilities for the community and every so often it gets destroyed and we have to spend our energy and money to put it right.

"It's just down to a handful of individuals who clearly don't care about their community.

"I know the police are putting resources in to trying to identify who these individuals are so they can take positive action against them. I hope they are successful."

Plans for town booze ban

DETAILS of a proposed ban on alcohol in Haverhill town centre will be unveiled next week.

Suffolk Police, St Edmundsbury Borough Council and Haverhill Town Council have worked together to establish a designated alcohol-free zone in the town, which would come into effect from next February.

A report to councillors said Haverhill town centre was suffering from significant levels of "yobbish" anti-social behaviour because of the public consumption of alcohol. The bad behaviour took the form of verbal abuse and urinating in public, particularly in the Jubilee Walk and bus station area.

Complaints had also been received from licensees and other businesses in the town about how the issue was affecting residents' quality of life and giving a negative view of the town. This was discouraging people from using the town centre, especially in the evening.

A police report said officers were spending a disproportionate amount of time dealing with the problems.

It also found that alcohol bans had worked well in other places.

Public consultation will be held before the ban is agreed and details of what is proposed will be released next week.

Cadets lend a hand to bag cash

KIND-hearted air cadets have been packing shopping bags to help revamp an RAF care home. Haverhill and Linton Air Cadets were helping out shoppers at Sainsbury's in Haverhill last weekend in aid of the Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund's Princess Marina House, which is trying to raise £300,000 in order to maintain its current level of care.

Cadets aged 14 to 18 pitched in with the fundraising effort, which will also contribute funds for air cadet activity centres. Bag Pack 2007 is being championed by the Commandant Air Cadets, which has pledged £100,000 towards Princess Marina House where injured servicemen and women can go to convalesce. The RAF Benevolent Fund expects guests to pay only what they can reasonably afford and will make up the shortfall between personal contributions and the full cost of a stay.

'Green' council one of the best

BY Rachel Extance

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

MORE than half of St Edmundsbury's rubbish is now being recycled, making its residents some of the greenest in the country.

Latest figures show the borough composted or recycled 50.03 per cent of waste in 2006/07, keeping it out of landfill sites.

It means environmentally-friendly residents have helped St Edmundsbury hold on to its position as one of the top 10 recyclers nationwide. St Edmundsbury is the top recycler in Suffolk and eighth out of 393 councils across the country.

Coun Peter Stevens, St Edmundsbury's cabinet member with responsibility for the environment, said: "For the borough to come among the best in the country once more is absolutely terrific news, and I would like to thank all of our residents for all their magnificent efforts over the past year."

"Credit should also be given to everyone in our waste management team, who have shown huge dedication in spearheading the drive for us to recycle, reuse and compost."

"Everyone should be very proud of the fact that, between us, we have diverted more than half of all the waste we produce away from landfill."

"The three-bin system makes it easy for people to recycle and compost as much as possible, and we're delighted that everyone has embraced the idea so fully."

St Edmundsbury Borough Council collected 47,783 tonnes of waste last year.

It hopes new initiatives such as a battery recycling trial and the availability to buy of blue sacks for putting out additional recyclables will boost rates even further.

Man was driving day after ban

A DRIVER is facing jail after being caught at the wheel within 24 hours of being disqualified.

Matthew Moe, 27, was pulled over by police in West Watlington on November 21, Cambridge Magistrates' Court heard. The stop came just a day after he was banned for six months by magistrates in Bury St Edmunds under the totting-up procedure.

Moe admitted charges of driving while disqualified and being without insurance. Magistrates were told it is the second time he has been caught driving while banned and his third offence of being behind the wheel without insurance.

Sentence on Moe, who lives in Bury St Edmunds, was adjourned for probation reports and he was warned that custody remains an option.

SAM'S THE WORD

News from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College

THE Christmas holidays are approaching rapidly, with many events going on and some still to come.

With the traditional Stars in their Eyes competition looming, the heats are about to start. Many acts will be performed, with musical genres ranging from rock to rap. Not only do the students participating put in outstanding performances – even Simon Cowell would be impressed, and we know how much it takes to impress him – but every year students seek to surprise us with their hidden musical talents. We are sure that again we will not be disappointed this year. Good luck to all those who are taking part.

■ Year 11s are in the swing of revision, and revision technique sessions were held on Wednesday. Students were given advice, tips and methods on the best ways of revising for their coming GCSE exams in May. We hope that they have found this session helpful.

■ During the past few months there have been several trainee teachers in the school fine-tuning their skills as they prepare to become fully-qualified teachers. Sadly, they have left now to further their training in other schools. We hope that they have enjoyed their time here at Samuel Ward and that they gained a lot of valuable experiences here.

■ Progress checks have been sent home this week in readiness for pupil review day next Wednesday. Teachers have been assessing students' progress over the past six weeks and discussions next week allows students and parents to understand where future improvements can be made to further their education.

■ As Christmas is fast approaching, the sixth formers are starting to get excited about the sixth form Christmas ball. The tickets are now on sale at £6 each. We hope that all sixth formers will be able to attend; it is a great night out and puts us all in the Christmas spirit.

■ The music department is planning a variety of events. Miss Wright, head of the department, has arranged a Christmas concert for next Wednesday. The orchestra will be playing a range of Christmas carols and there will be Christmas-themed refreshments such as mince pies – yummy! The orchestra will also be playing Christmas carols at the Old Independent Church for local primary schools on December 17.

■ Students from the music department have just had their first entry into the Rock School grade exams, which involve guitar and drum exams. The students are anxiously waiting the results. We are sure that all events going on within the music department will be a success and we wish them the best of luck.

WEEKLY NEWS Letters

THE Haverhill Weekly News welcomes your views. Write to: Readers Letters, Haverhill Weekly News, 4 Queen Street, Haverhill, CB9 9EF or send an email to editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk Please be as concise as possible and attach your full name, address and telephone number.

Full-time supervision in play areas not practical

Sir, I wish to reply to the letter that Mrs Faupel wrote (Following rules at centre – Weekly News, November 15) about an incident at Boomerangs Play Centre, which resulted in a four-year-old boy breaking his leg.

I agree that children need to be supervised but also, for safety reasons, know that if every adult accompanied a child on the equipment it would become overcrowded and potentially dangerous. It is advertised as a soft play area for children – not 50 per cent children and 50 per cent adults.

Surely one of the main ideas of places like Boomerangs is to be able to take children to play and allow them to gain confidence and to interact with other children in a safe environment.

When they leave the soft play equipment it is then 100 per cent the responsibility of the accompanying adult to supervise the child to make sure that they behave and do not run riot outside of the soft play area, causing risk to themselves and others.

If parents are expected to supervise their children's play 100 per cent of the time – as Mrs Faupel says, according to "Boomerangs' safety of play rules" – then the areas for parents to sit and have refreshments should not be provided within the area. Surely they should only be available for use once the child has finished within the play areas before they go home?

I am sure Mrs Faupel is a very caring, vigilant grandmother, and I respect her obvious faith in soft play equipment, but as Mrs Faupel stated, they are covered by health and safety regulations and should be a safe place for our children to play.

The public are entitled to be made aware when an incident such as the forementioned occurs so that detailed checks can be made to avoid any child being at risk in the future.

Don't believe bad news about centre

Sir, I was sorry to hear that four-year-old Tai Rose broke his leg while playing at Boomerangs' play zone. However, I felt it was rather unfair that Boomerangs received such bad publicity.

I have taken my two children there on several occasions and have myself climbed all over the apparatus while supervising them.

I recently held my son's sixth birthday at Boomerangs and he told me it was his "best birthday ever!" The party was well organised and all 16 children really enjoyed themselves. Two of the parents whose children came to the party have subsequently booked Boomerangs for their children's birthday.

I have also heard from parents who have not yet taken their children there that they will not do so due to the article giving them the impression it is not a safe place.

Haverhill is growing and improving all the time and I feel that Boomerangs has played a part in this.

I will continue to use and support the facility and would hope that those who have been put off by the article will give it a chance. Their children will love it.

Present your pitch for slice of footie cash – MP

LOCAL MP Richard Spring is encouraging football clubs in Haverhill to utilise a sports charity.

He wants clubs to contact The Haverhill's Clarks is up, running and ready to help

WHEN Perry Gurney came to Haverhill he had just one thought: shoes. Having searched for the perfect location for his shoe shop, the new manager of Clarks in Haverhill is looking forward to a busy Christmas.

"My wife works for Clarks and we decided to open a franchise. When we visited David Brownhill's independent shop, we thought it was the perfect opportunity. He and his wife have now retired and we wish them every success in the future. We've now been open seven weeks and it's going well. I come from Kent and we looked everywhere for the right location and this was definitely the best."

ADVERTISING FEATURE

Perry says there are lots of challenges when starting your own business. But he believes that with the help of the staff from Brownhill's he will be able to continue to offer a top quality service.

"All our staff are local and have worked here for many years. Karen, Jackie, Wendy and Maxine will be pleased to help you with all your footwear needs."

At this time of year, Perry says most people are looking for boots.

"The key to buying the right pair of boots is to consider the width of your calf and also if you want a knee high boot or an ankle boot," he says. "We've got a huge range. The biggest mistake people make when shoe buying is not trying shoes on. They'll be in rush and the following day will bring them back! We've got traditional and modern styles for all the family and our new range for men is selling particularly well."

Perry adds: "Customers who bring this advert with them will get 10 per cent off non-sale items. This offer ends on December 24 and is only available in this store. We also have a sale starting on Friday, December 7 with up to 50 per cent off retail prices."

For more information please call (01440) 761884 or drop in to Clarks, 51-53 Jubilee Walk, Haverhill, Monday to Friday, 9.15am-5.15pm or on Saturday 9-5pm.

Party tips guaranteed to stun

■ GLAMOROUS... shimmer in this season's look.

FORGET the Christmas shopping, if there's one thing that needs to take priority on your festive to-do list, it's finding the perfect party outfit.

Whether you choose a slinky dress or sexy separates, this season a show-stopping ensemble is a must to wow those Christmas crowds.

"In terms of cost per wear, a great party dress doesn't exactly offer the best value for money," says Trish Halpin, editor of In Style magazine.

"But for a confidence-boosting, instant wow-factor hit, there's nothing quite like it. Find The One – cut to fit you perfectly with just the right amount of shimmer or sequins – and you can guarantee it's going to be a night to remember."

We show you how to dazzle on the dancefloor

this season with some festive sparkle:

FASHIONABLE FROCKS

The party frock is "the" essential item to see you through the party season. To be totally on-trend choose prom dress styles, slinky waist-cinching shifts or bubble hems.

Bling is back in a big way so expect large doses of embellishment, shimmer and sparkle for this season's alternative to the trusty LBD.

SEXY SEPARATES

Tomboy types will be horrified at the thought of donning a girlie party dress. But you don't have to turn to uber-feminine bows, ribbons or embellishments just because it's the party season. Embrace this season's masculine trend with a trendy tux, high-waisted trousers and a drop-dead gorgeous top instead.

Trawling the shops for stylish separates does require more groundwork but the results can be just as dazzling as a little festive frock.

CHRISTMAS COVER-UPS

The party season is all about flashing the flesh, despite those freezing temperatures. Stay super snug outdoors – and keep your modesty – with a festive cover-up.

Make like Kate Moss and pick up a fashionable faux fur number, which should have staying power in your winter wardrobe long after the party season has fizzled out.

PARTYWEAR PIZZAZZ

Want to be a festive hit on the fashion front? Amanda Slader, chief fashion advisor at John

Lewis has these essential Christmas party dressing tips:

■ Chat to friends/colleagues about what they will be wearing to your big festive bash. You'll avoid being over/under-dressed and can also make sure you shine brighter than other guests!

■ Dress code dilemmas can be diverted, even the dreaded "smart/casual". A knee-length cocktail dress always works, especially if you party hop.

■ Wow the Christmas crowds in metallics, midnight blues and rich purples in silks, satin or velvet – this season's fabulous trends.

■ Don't wear a new pair of high heels, or that rogue garment that rides up or down. Hobbling and constantly adjusting your outfit will spoil your evening.

■ METALLICS... add a little sparkle to your outfit.

Solutions for your kitchen

IF you're shaking at the idea of tackling the Christmas roast once again in your less than modern kitchen, head to Premier Interiors.

On December 8, staff and representatives from kitchen technology experts Hotpoint will be on hand to talk you through your kitchen needs.

Manager of Premier Interiors, Tony Mumford, says: "I'm sure there are probably a few people not relishing the thought of cooking in their old kitchen this year. We've got 10

Designs to revitalise any home kitchens on display in our showroom which are all state-of-the-art. We've also got a wide selection of flooring solutions."

Offering competitive prices as well as an excellent level of customer service, the team at Premier Interiors are eager to see the process through from start to finish.

"We start by coming out and measuring up the space and then show the customer their options with our 3-D computer aided design service," explains Tony. "Then we'll do the whole installation. Many companies will just supply the carcass or will do the carpentry work but not the electrics. We do everything from the plumbing to the gas and any interior work. We've got builders on stand by. A lot of people are knocking their kitchens into their dining area so we can offer to do things like that. And we'll make sure it's finished properly — right down to the ceiling lights."

On December 8 the staff at Premier Interiors will be welcoming customers from 9am with mince pies and mulled wine. "We've got a working induction hob we'll be demonstrating, new Hotpoint wide fridge drawers and, at last count, over 400 different door styles to show people. We really do offer an extensive range."

Christmas can take its toll

PARTYING, shopping, and all the rush and excitement associated with Christmas are part of the festivities but they can take a toll on our health.

If you get through the run-up without one ailment you're in the minority.

"This time of year always sees a rise in patients coming in with niggling ailments like headaches, backache and problems like indigestion and heartburn as a result of over-indulging in rich food and alcohol," says GP Dr Paul Stillman.

Here are the most common 12 ailments of Christmas with tips and treatments to help prevent or cure them.

HANGOVER

High doses of caffeine and painkillers are traditional remedies, but you could try a Hangover Pillow.

The blend of herbs inhaled by users ensures, according to makers Wild Earth, that nausea and headaches dissipate, keeping you sharp and alert.

CRAMP

Around 13 million of us suffer regular night cramps but during the party season this number increases as we drink and dance all night.

Dr Stillman says: "Dehydration and unaccustomed exercise can trigger cramp. Drinking Indian tonic water can help reduce attacks."

BAD BREATH

Don't blow chances of a Christmas party romance with this embarrassing symptom. Simple brushing, flossing and using a tongue cleaner will solve it.

ASTHMA

Hidden asthma triggers can ruin festive cheer for sufferers. Dusty decorations can set off attacks for some.

Asthma UK suggests wiping decorations before putting them up and shaking artificial trees outside to shed dust before displaying.

SORE THROAT

Tingling or burning in the throat is a symptom of inflamed tissues in the larynx, pharynx and tonsils.

Uncomplicated sore throats usually last up to three days, are viral and don't respond to antibiotics. Coughing, a symptom of both infections, can aggravate the throat and make it feel worse.

HEADACHE

All the stress of the preparations can provoke tension headaches, says Dr Stillman. "It's definitely one of the most common ailments and makes life difficult for many people."

He recommends over-the-counter treatments containing paracetamol, such as Panadol, which he believes is gentle on the stomach.

COLD SORES

Those 30 million UK sufferers from this troublesome virus know that cold winds, flu and tiredness can trigger an attack of painful sores on the mouth.

Try to avoid a break-out by using UV protection lip balm. Garlic, which has antiviral properties, taken fresh or in capsule form may help.

SORE EYES

Winter's cool winds and drier air indoors can irritate eyes and those who wear contact lenses are especially vulnerable.

Heaters and blazing fires suck moisture out of the air, and Dr John Hill, senior eye surgeon, at Optimax which specialises in laser eye surgery, says: "Using eye drops a few times a day can help ward off irritation."

CHILBLAINS

Chilblains – itchy red swellings usually on the toes – are caused by the skin's abnormal reaction to cold. Damp conditions, hormone imbalance, or dietary factors can cause them.

Use soothing lotions such as witch hazel and calamine. If the skin is not broken paint them with a mixture of friar's balsam and a weak solution of iodine, which a pharmacist can prepare.

COLD FEET

Warm tootsies with Carnation Silversocks, £5.99, made from pure silver fibres which act as a natural heat thermostat and they're recommended for those with poor circulation.

For advice, call Carnation on 0121 544 7117.

INDIGESTION

Large portions and rich meals can result indigestion.

■ HANGOVER? ... use a herbal pillow.

Dyspepsia, its medical name, is a collection of symptoms, the main one being a pain in the chest. Feeling bloated or uncomfortably full are other symptoms.

Dr Stillman says: "Rest your stomach by not eating when you feel like this. There are also remedies to reduce stomach acid."

TIREDDNESS

Tramping round shops as well as broken nights worrying about that never-ending list of tasks can leave you tired.

Scientists believe that looking at the point between the eyebrows slows down brain waves and stimulates a gland which produces sleep inducing melatonin.

■ FIONA'S . . . flowers and plants in all sizes.

'Aladdins cave' for all fans of flowers

IF you want to make your own floral creations this Christmas you will find everything you need at Fiona's.

The shop sells all the floral sundries the DIY florist requires to make their own arrangement including Oasis, wire and ribbon and other accessories. The shop has lots of gift ideas, garden plants and wedding flowers and accessories.

Owner Fiona Pilcher has more than 30 years experience as a florist and if she hasn't got what you are looking for in the shop she will try and locate it for you.

Fiona says: "I am very passionate about keeping up with current trends and feel that I am able to give customers a few tips and advice should they need them."

Fresh Christmas trees and holly wreaths are now available and Fiona even offers a decorating service. All you have to do is choose your colour scheme and provide the lights and Fiona will do the rest. Fiona also stocks lots of Christmas ribbon which can be sold in amounts as little as half a metre up to the whole roll.

From vases to garden plants, Fiona will gift-wrap the items for you. Fiona tries to be as environmentally friendly as possible and instead of using logo-printed bags, reuses super market carrier bags or alternatively customers can bring in their own bags to transport their goods home with them.

If you are planning a wedding in the New Year then Fiona's has all the flowers you will need for your wedding party requirements and for the church and wedding reception venue. Also available to hire are items such as pedestals and flower arches.

Fiona offers a range of prices to suit people's pockets and a delivery service is available.

Discounts are available to clubs and trades people such as florists and landscape gardeners.

Customers are welcome to come in and have a look at the shop which Fiona describes as "an Aladdin's cave full of floral paraphernalia".

Fiona's is open Thursday, Friday and Saturday 10am-4pm and Sunday 10am-2pm.

For more information call (01440) 707555 or visit the shop at Sturmer Arches, Sturmer Road, Haverhill.

Cash helps send pupils on field trip

PUPILS of a local primary school will be heading off on a residential field study trip next April thanks to a £1,000 donation from a county councillor.

Coun Phillip French, a member of Suffolk County Council, went along to Clements Primary School in Haverhill to hand over the cash from his Locality Budget for the town.

The money was presented at an assembly attended by parents and will help pay for a group of 25 Year 4 pupils to attend a residential course at the Thornton Fields Study Centre in Eye next April.

Headteacher Olwen Powell thanked Coun French for the donation and told him the school was immensely grateful for it.

■ FUNDING BOOST . . . Coun Phillip French hands over the cheque to pupils Charlie Westley, nine, and Shae Libversidge, eight.

■ EDMUND VESTEY . . . 'made a huge contribution' to the region.

Tributes for hunt master

TRIBUTES have been paid to one of the region's richest men and most colourful characters who has died after a battle with cancer.

Edmund Vestey was the third-generation leader of one of the world's largest family businesses, Vestey Group, and also a dedicated countryman who led nationwide opposition to the ban on hunting with hounds.

He died on Friday, November 23, at Little Thurlow Hall, which he had shared with his wife Anne until her death earlier this year.

Mr Vestey, 75, amassed an estimated £700 million fortune from his family's interests in the meat trade, based on the achievements of his grandfather Edmund in the 1920s.

At its peak it had 23,000 employees and kept more than 250,000 cattle worldwide. Mr Vestey was well-known as the master of the Thurlow Hunt.

He was educated at Eton before embarking on a military career and was a keen fundraiser.

John Griffiths, leader of St Edmundsbury Borough Council, said "He was a prominent figure who made a huge contribution to a large number of people. He will be sorely missed."

Theft from van

A SATELLITE navigation screen, a drill and a wallet were stolen from a van after a window was smashed.

The white Vauxhall Vivaro van was broken into while parked in Kingfisher Close, Haverhill, between 5.30pm on Monday and 7.15am on Tuesday.

Police have repeated warnings to drivers to remove anything of value from cars when leaving them parked.

Anyone with information should call Pc Colin Cox at Haverhill police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Choral treat

HAVERHILL Choral Society will be in fine voice for a performance of Handel's Messiah.

The choir, conducted by Jane Wright, hopes the work will be an ideal start to the Christmas festivities. The concert will be at the Old Independent Church, Hamlet Road, Haverhill, on December 16 at 7pm.

Tickets are available on the door and cost £6, including a buffet supper after the performance.

Scooter stolen

A SCOOTER was stolen from outside a house in Haverhill.

The red Lambretta scooter, registration KJX 73T, was parked in Teasel Close when it was taken on Sunday between 8pm and 11.50pm.

Anyone with information should contact Pc Colin Cox at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or call Crimestoppers, in confidence, on 0800 555111.

Hospice gets cash boost thanks to team's efforts

BY Rachel Extance

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A HOSPICE is brighter and better off thanks to the generosity of staff from a Haverhill company.

Employees at Genzyme gave up their time to organise a range of fundraising events including competitions, a charity auction and race night, sponsored bike riding, running and a football tournament in aid of St Nicholas Hospice in Bury St Edmunds. They also spent their weekends painting and decorating the building.

The company raised £13,700 for the charity. Staff collected £6,500 and their efforts were recognised by bosses at Genzyme's US headquarters, who donated £7,500 to the cause.

Staff got together as part of Genzyme's global volunteer programme, Genzyme Invests in Volunteer Efforts (GIVE), which encourages its employees to volunteer for initiatives in their local communities.

Donna Cathmoir, matron at the hospice, was presented with a cheque by Simon Cousins, vice president and general manager of Genzyme.

Paul Abbott, from St Nicholas Hospice, said: "We are extremely grateful to Genzyme employees for their fantastic support for St Nicholas Hospice.

"Their commitment has gone beyond the financial. Having raised a magnificent sum of £13,700, their staff showed their personal commitment by giving up their leisure time to help paint and decorate the hospice.

"It is a privilege for St Nicholas Hospice to be associated with such a company as Genzyme.

"We hope this is the beginning of a successful long-term partnership."

Festive tunes at service

THE Havebury Housing Partnership is spreading the festive spirit by inviting residents to its second annual Christmas carols service at St Edmundsbury Cathedral.

Bury St Edmunds MP David Ruffley and Mayor of St Edmundsbury, Coun Margaret Charlesworth, will be joined by Havebury residents and employees.

The St Edmundsbury Cathedral Ladies Choir will be singing and there will be readings by representatives of Havebury and its Tenants' Forum.

It takes place on Friday, December 14, at 2.30pm, and people of all faiths are welcome to attend.

Steve Cook, Havebury chief executive, said: "Our first ever carol service in 2006 was a great success and we are looking forward to seeing even more of our residents and members of the local community for this year's traditional celebrations."

For further information, and to attend the concert, please contact Nicola Clarke on (01284) 722032.

■ GOING UP . . . pupils with the new traversing wall.

CP.

Wall a way to spend a fun school day!

AN OFF-THE-WALL idea has made a school's day. Pupils at New Cangle Primary School, in Chapple Drive,

Haverhill, have been enjoying the thrills of having a traversing wall at their school. It has been constructed for pupils by the South West Suffolk School Sport Partnership. They are supported by the National Lottery through the Big Lottery Fund. The artwork on the wall has been funded by the Friends of Cangle.

Trio now four

FOLK crowd-pleasers Last Night's Fun will be at the Cambridge Folk Club at the Golden Hind in Cambridge tomorrow. The trio of Denny Bartley on guitar, Nick Scott on uilleann pipes and Chris Sherburn on concertina are famous for their breathtaking virtuosity and are now joined by all-Britain and all-Ireland bodhran champion, Ciaran Boyle. Support comes from blues duo Martin Kaszak and Howard Roscoe. Tickets are £8-£10. Call (01638) 603986 to book.

All-star cast set for charity showcase

WARTIME forces sweetheart Dame Vera Lynn, 1960s chart star Petula Clark and sitcom queen June Whitfield will be at Ely Cathedral this weekend. The Stars Organisation Supporting People with Cerebral Palsy holds a Christmas concert every year at the Queen Elizabeth Hall in London, but this year the evening is coming to Ely. The event, entitled When Icicles Hang by the Wall, will feature festive readings and music on Saturday. The line-up will also include Sylvia Syms, who recently played the Queen Mother in the hit British film, The Queen, David Griffith, from the classic comedy Keeping Up Appearances and the Choir of Ely Cathedral. Tickets are £5-£20 and the evening starts at 7.30pm. To book tickets call (01353) 660349.

Barry's still alive - and telling tales!

Star concert

YOUNG jazz star Gwilym Simcock will be at the Cambridge Modern Jazz Club at Kettles Yard in Cambridge tomorrow. Still in his 20s, piano player Gwilym Simcock has been hailed as one of the most gifted and imaginative composers working on the British scene, and is able to move effortlessly between jazz and classical music. To book call (01223) 511511.

POPULAR local big band 42nd Street make a welcome return to the Haverhill Arts Centre this Friday at 7.30pm with vocalist Amy Letcher.

They will present a concert of swing and jazz classics, along with big band arrangements of contemporary songs including music from Glen Miller, Bobby Darin, The Blues Brothers, Lionel Ritchie and many more.

Barry Cryer will be taking his audience on a trip down memory lane on Saturday at 8pm, pausing only for tea and macaroons at the Stannah Stairlift Café.

Barry Cryer - Still Alive is packed with jokes, songs, stories and on certain nights, pole vaulting! In this pro-active show, the audience has the chance to shout a page number from one of his books and he will relate the story thereon! Go on, test him. Come along and join "Baz" for a wander through his life and yours with a guaranteed two hours of chuckle therapy.

Cate Blanchett and Geoffrey Rush reprise their roles to return in a captivating historical thriller that is laced with treachery and romance. Elizabeth: The Golden Age

(12A) will be showing on Monday at 1.30pm and 7.45pm, and Tuesday at 7.45pm. It also stars Clive Owen as Sir Walter Raleigh, the dashing seafarer. Queen Elizabeth I is facing bloodlust over her throne, family betrayal and an open challenge from Phillip II, King of Spain, but as she prepares for war Elizabeth struggles to balance her duties with her unexpected love for Raleigh.

Finally, the film all the family has been waiting for, Ratatouille (U), starring a rat with aspirations to be a star chef. Remy is convinced he can break the stereotype and make it in the world of haute cuisine. He teams up with no-talent chef Linguini who works in the Paris restaurant above Remy's home in the sewer. Together they create some fabulous dishes but live in fear that someone will discover their secret and object to a rat in the kitchen.

It screens next Wednesday at 5pm.

For more details about the shows, or to book tickets, phone (01440) 714140 or go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

BMW's spectacular 'M' thriller

I'VE developed a soft spot for the BMW M3.

The coverage the new E92 M3 has received in the past months has led me to regard this new Beemer as an old friend. Absorbing numbers, scrutinising styling details, marvelling at audio clips of the raucous V8 – it's as if we'd known each other our entire lives. Of course that is not the case and the E92 is very much the new kid on the block.

So, what can I tell you about the latest M3 coupé that you won't have already heard? Truthfully... nothing, chances are you'll have heard it all before, but how does it rank amongst its predecessors?

Upon seeing the M3 for the first time I was surprised at its size. I knew it was going to be bigger than the standard coupé, but its new dimensions almost caricature the lesser 3-Series models. The most noticeable addition is the "powerdome" on the bonnet, but larger air intakes, an all-carbon fibre roof and a set of four chromed pipes complete this new 3-Series on steroids.

Inside, there's little to set the M3 apart from the rest of the range.

FIRST DRIVE

Fallen for a younger model...

GEORGE BARROW

It's comfortable, well made and everything we've come to expect from BMW, without the ostentatious styling of the exterior.

Press the start button and the 4.0-litre V8 fires crisply, but jumps to life with only a low grumble, resting in a comfortable but uninspiring idle. Only when I gently feather the pedal do I begin to feel its potential. Itching to go, I pull out onto the road. I find second gear, at just 6,000rpm, well below the 8,400rpm red line, giving me just a brief snippet of the eight-strong choir beneath the 'dome. Second gear soon ends, but I want to hold on to third a while longer though that ends too quickly, this time through no fault of my own. Pull down into fourth on the 'box and power continues, but sadly the road does not.

Having experienced the range of the engine, I can now say how truly magnificent the M3's engine is. Clever electronics mean there is a seemingly endless stream of power all the way up to the rev limit. To fully appreciate the BMW's potential, I pressed the "M Drive" button – and I was in a totally different car. The throttle response sharpened and the steering assistance was toned down a notch. Dampers were tensed and the stability control relaxed which meant a far less predictable ride.

So, what have I learnt from my time with the M3 that I wouldn't have been able to tell you before? I now know that the initial commotion was justified, this really is a spectacular car. What's now troubling me is that my benchmark for affordable fun has been shattered.

BASICALLY...

How can I go on kidding myself into wanting a prehistoric, outdated M3 when I now know there is so much more?

Value super-estates are in fashion at used sites

■ SUPERB . . . BMW 5 Series Touring.

FAST estates are finding favour with used car buyers, says advice website UsedCarExpert.com

"For example," says spokesman Matt Tumbridge, "Saab 9-5 2.2-litre diesels are popular with drivers that spend lots of time on the motorway."

"As a result, there are a lot of high-mileage 9-5s on the market. Cars from as recent as 2003 have completed 50 to 75,000 miles, and can be bought for as little as £7,350."

Even if you put 20,000 miles a year on such a car, Tumbridge says you will not lose much money, because they depreciate very slowly from this age on.

"But if the Saab is not right for you, there are other fast and comfortable estate cars out there to choose from. They are not such good value perhaps but worth a look nonetheless," Tumbridge adds.

Here's his selection:

■ Saab 9-5 (1997-present) – Well built, lavishly equipped, and always cheap, here is the perfect used executive car which has it all, including a great safety record, says Tumbridge. Prices get lower all the time, too, he asserts.

Most economical model is the 2.2 TiD, returning 38.2mpg, and best used buy is the 2.0 Turbo, with SE specification.

UsedCarExpert.com says faults to avoid number 13, and prices a 2.0t from 2001 with around 90,000 miles on the clock at just £4,500. Then again, £8,000 will buy a 2.0t Vector from 2003 that has done just 50,000 miles.

■ BMW 5-Series (1996-2004) – "Brilliantly engineered and built, the best prestige estate you can buy," says Tumbridge. "They are very comfortable, and great to drive, with prices of petrol models dropping by the day."

Most economical is the 525d, returning 42.2mpg overall, and best used buy is the smooth and powerful 525i petrol engine, with SE specification.

UsedCarExpert.com lists 25 pre-buy check, and prices a 62,000-mile 525i from 2001 at around £8,600.

■ Audi A6 Avant (1997-2005) – "This matches BMW's 5 and Mercedes' E, and is certainly better built inside and out, but the Audi badge does not quite have the image and that means lower prices," Tumbridge points out. The Avant estate is an impressive size, though, he says.

Most economical model is the 1.9Tdi 115, returning 52.3mpg overall, and best used buy is the 2.4 V6 – because it is petrol, it comes fairly cheap.

UsedCarExpert.com lists 15 faults to avoid, while pricing a 2001 2.4 V6, with 60,000 recorded miles, at around £7,609.

SVX is celebration of first Landy

LAND Rover will celebrate its 60th anniversary with a new special edition of the iconic Defender – the SVX. The Land Rover Defender SVX was unveiled for the first time by Zara Phillips at the British Red Cross Ball in London last week. The world's first SVX has been donated by Land Rover UK to the British Red Cross to auction at the ball.

"The Red Cross association with Land Rover goes back to 1954, when Land Rover supplied a vehicle to the British Red Cross for use in Dubai as a mobile dispensary," said James Johnstone, chairman for the British Red Cross Ball. "We are thrilled that Land Rover continues to support our vital humanitarian work today. Funds raised from auctioning this vehicle will go towards the work of the Red Cross in the UK and overseas, which this year has included the UK floods, Darfur Crisis and ongoing HIV work in Africa."

While most of the 25,000 Defenders produced each year are working tools for everyone from farmers and foresters to aid agencies, the SVX is the most stylish and feature-packed version that Land Rover has ever produced.

With metallic black paintwork and subtle satin black graphic decals, the Defender SVX will be available in both 90 soft-top and 90 station wagon versions. Distinctive exterior features have a contrasting silver finish, such as the unique "Defender" and "SVX" badges, tubular side-steps, and the bold surround for the front grille and new, clear-lens headlamps. All vehicles will also feature new, "diamond turned" five-spoke alloy wheels, a reinforced aluminium front undershield and clear LED rear lights.

SVX interiors are equipped with custom-designed Recaro front seats, distinctive alloy gear knobs, a new audio system (with subwoofer and USB socket), iPod cradle and Garmin satellite navigation. The soft-top models are especially eye-catching, with a metallic silver tubular cage that supports a tailor-made, removable black fabric hood. This encloses a flat load-space and a spare wheel stowed behind the front seats, reminiscent of the very first open-top Land Rovers. Each SVX model for the UK will also come fitted with an individually numbered plaque, eg 001.

"The Defender SVX looks very different to a spartan 1948 Land Rover, but it's still an essentially practical vehicle that will enable you to go almost anywhere," says Phil Popham, Land Rover's managing director. "The new and much more refined diesel engine introduced earlier this year has been a great success with customers, and for those who want the ultimate Defender, we thought that the SVX special edition would be an ideal way to mark Land Rover's 60th birthday."

A total of 200 SVX vehicles will be made available in the UK.

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

Lingard is quick off mark for Gunners

Saffron Walden U10B 2
Grampian Gunners U10 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10E

GRAMPIAN went on the attack from the start with captain Jason Moore quickly switching the play to Jamie Lingard, who ran into the box from the wing, beat a defender and smashed home across the keeper.

On the other wing, Toby Daly was in inspired form, forcing a penalty for handball.

Daly stepped up to take the kick, but the keeper got a touch to save it.

Walden poked in an equaliser on the stroke of half time.

Early second half, Walden took the lead when Grampian's usually rock solid back pairing of Jack Davis and George Mustoe made their only mistake of the game and were punished.

Lewis Whiting nearly equalised with a header that Walden's keeper dropped, only for the ball to fall agonisingly the wrong side of the post.

It was an end-to-end match for the last 20 minutes, with Grampian's man of the match Josh Matthewson making some excellent saves, and Walden also missing a penalty.

West Watting Youth U11 1
Aztecs Juniors U11 3

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

WEST Watting were again beaten by the Aztecs with the same scoreline as the previous week.

Watting pressured Aztecs from the first whistle with six shots on target in as many minutes testing keeper Tinniswood, who handled superbly.

Cooper hit a post for Watting before

■ KITTED OUT ...
Haverhill Rovers Girls U13 have Moo Juice, based in the town, as sponsors of their new kit. The picture of the squad and its coaches was taken after the recent cup success over Willingham Wolves. CP.

Aztecs broke for Gardener to score with his first chance.

Millar made two outstanding saves after the visitors forced a succession of corners.

In the second half, Watting pressed into the Aztecs' half, but the visitors broke twice and Gordon and Gardner rattled in two cracking goals for a 3-0 lead.

Lambert went close for Watting, while Ager and Scotton were unlucky not to pull goals back.

Watting did pull a goal back as Lambert flicked the ball over the defender and rattled in a stunner.

The hosts pressed on with Payne going close.

Grampian Gunners U14 0
Hardwick Harriers U14 0

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 14A

JORDAN Palazon returned to the Gunners' line-up after seven weeks on the sidelines through injury, but the home side were missing Tom Bailey for this stalemate.

Hardwick are riding high at the top of the league, but a spirited performance by Grampian saw the points shared.

In awful conditions there was still some decent football from both sides.

Luke Halls went close for the home team while the visitors hit the post. In the end the result was just about right.

Grampian manager Simon Youngs said: "It was a good game in terrible conditions we are more than happy with our point. The boys worked very hard against a decent team."

TREADFIRST SUDBURY & DIST SUNDAY LEAGUE

Title charge goes on for raging Bull

HAVERHILL Bull pulled out all the stops in a fine performance in treacherous conditions as they easily saw off Haverhill Snooker & Bowl and on their way to retaining the Division One title.

Jamie Warner (2), Harry Halls (2), Ricky Tabram, Sam Holmes and Chris Claydon got on the scoresheet for the Bull to make the final score 7-1.

Elsewhere in Division One, Haverhill United Old Boys were outplayed as they suffered to the hands of Border Athletic 9-0.

In division three, Barnadiston Arms' run of good form continues with an impressive 4-0 win away to Kedington White Horse.

In Division Four, Fingleaves beat SC Sudbury 2-1.

In division five, Glemsford Social Club drew 2-2 away to Boxford Rovers Reserves.

Also in division five, Delaware Feather Angels impressive form of late was ended by Sudbury Black Horse losing 4-2.

The Sudbury side raced to a 4-0 lead within the first 30 minutes, which included a penalty given against Angels' Daniel Pilbrow for handball.

Feather Angels came back into the game, and an own goal, coming from a Matthew Morrison free-kick, together with a strike from top goalscorer Christian Jaques made the scoreline a little more respectable. It was the Black Horse, however, who held on for a much-deserved victory.

Delaware's man of the match was Matt Cullen.

Also in Division Five, Herbert Lions beat Haverhill Rose and Crown 4-1, despite only having nine men for most of the game.

Most games did not take place due to bad weather.

FOOTBALL

Joy as Westcott stoops to conquer

■ WINNING GOAL ... Martin Westcott, whose late strike clinched victory for Haverhill at Harwich on Tuesday evening.

MARTIN Westcott left it late to help Haverhill get back to winning ways with a 1-0 victory at Harwich & Parkeston in the Ridgeons League, Premier Division on Tuesday evening.

After a goalless first half, Rovers suffered a blow when Richard Heller limped off with an ankle injury with 20 minutes to go. Harwich struck the bar five minutes from time, but just when the game looked to be heading for a stalemate, Westcott came to Haverhill's rescue in stoppage time.

Nick Impey got the ball to substitute Sam Green to send over a first-time cross that Westcott stooped to head home. Rovers' return to form came after a defensive slip by Marcus Hunt cost them the game at struggling Swaffham on Saturday.

Rovers had several chances to go ahead early on, with Impey having a shot blocked at the near post, while Marc Abbott fired a swirling 35-yard effort into the goalkeeper's hands. Abbott and Heller both went close again midway through the first half, and Wayne Goddard's 20-yard volley flew over the bar soon after.

Swaffham went ahead after 66 minutes when Hunt allowed a home attacker to go through to slot past Rovers' goalkeeper Arron Benstead.

Haverhill continued to dominate possession, with Abbott firing wide from 20 yards after substitute Jamie Thurlbourne cut the ball back. Substitute Westcott saw his late 25-yard effort go wide as Rovers failed to get back on terms.

Manager Steve Taylor said: "We had 70 per cent of the possession in the game and they had one shot in the second half and scored from it."

■ Rovers are in league action twice over the coming week.

On Saturday, they entertain Kirkley & Pakefield at Hamlet Croft before travelling to take on near-neighbours Newmarket in a local derby on Tuesday evening.

RUGBY

■ SCORER ... Jake Plumridge, who kicked a first-half penalty for Haverhill.

Quinney's heartened in defeat

INJURIES and illness did not help Haverhill's cause as they lost out 20-8 at Swaffham in Eastern Counties Two on Saturday.

But skipper Dave Quinney was encouraged by the display as they still search for their first victory since the opening day of the season.

Jake Plumridge kicked a penalty for Haverhill as they went into the break 5-3 down, and in the second half scored a try through Chris Claydon, but Swaffham proved too strong for them.

"We lost five players through illness and injury," said Quinney. "A few of the second team stepped up to the mark and it felt like we were getting somewhere. It was one of the best performances in the last five weeks. Everyone played well together, there was a lot of cohesion and everyone got on with their jobs."

This weekend Haverhill are away to Brightlingsea in the Suffolk Plate. They were beaten finalists in the competition last season.

■ A brace of tries each by winger Simon Lester and No 8 Martin Ransom provided the platform for Haverhill 2nd XV's 25-3 victory over their Royston counterparts on Saturday.

New U's deal is put to Morrison

■ PONDERING ... Michael Morrison, who is considering new terms, offered to him by Cambridge United.

CAMBRIDGE United have made Michael Morrison "a fantastic financial offer" to stay at the Abbey.

U's chairman Lee Power said he hoped the Haverhill-based England C international, whose contract runs out at the end of the season, would accept the new deal after turning down a previous offer in the summer.

But he said the United board, who rejected an offer from Southend for the defender in the summer, wanted an answer one way or the other as soon as possible from the teenager, who has previously had trials with the likes of Chelsea, Everton and Newcastle.

Power said: "We've made Michael a fantastic financial offer for this level and I think he'd benefit from staying with us for another year or two under the guidance of Jimmy (Quinn) and Alan (Lewer). It's a big decision for the lad - everyone has got to be aware of that - the same as it was for Robbie (Simpson)."

"Michael is going to mull it over with his family and his agent, but, although we'll give him enough time to think about it, we've asked for an early decision from him."

Power added it was important for United to make it into the FA Cup by beating Weymouth on Saturday.

Despite the club not budgeting for a cup run of any sort, he said they welcomed a third round trip to Championship outfit Wolverhampton Wolves. He said: "It's massive for any club at our level or even a couple of levels above to get to the third round, though we've done well just to get here."

"We'll be the favourites because we're at home, not just because we're doing well in the league, but Weymouth will think they've got a good chance as well."

"It's just a huge game that we need to win and I think Jimmy and the players know how important it is."

"The financial situation is probably the best it has been for a number of years, but we still budget to lose a lot of money this year."

"Although we do have everything in place to try to fill that hole, it would be lovely for a cup run to do it."
